

What's inside?

(these pants)

The Presidential candidates displayed both brawn and brains when we caught up with them, but only one will lead UBC students into the new academic year.

We asked the candidates for VP Academic to spill on all things to do with academic affairs, including whether they've had any affairs of their own... Sexy.

ooo page 6

Three women and a barbarian running for VP Admin walk into a bar... okay, we don't have a joke, but the girls do reveal which Canadian politician (dead or alive) makes them swoon.

Talk about heavy weights: every candidate in the race for VP External Affairs can boast of quarterback proportions, but they've got something to say, too. We asked these gentle giants to weigh in on the Coke monopoly that has loomed over campus since 1995.

ooo page 8

It's an age-old battle of the sexes, and these VP Finance candidates put their opposing socio-economic theories to the test for us, answering the question, "can money buy love?"

ooo page 13

Five of these lucky candidates will get to vouch for students' highest academic aspirations, like squeaking by on that chemistry exam on a technicality, or maybe even being able to take elective courses for credit without ever getting a grade.

ooo page 15

Eight want the job, but only two will sit next to the bigwigs on UBC's highest governing body. See how they stack up.

meet dick...

This is Dick.

Dick is Election Erection Magazine's attentive mascot. When he isn't hanging around helping us out, he's working hard at the AMS Wellness Centre downstairs in the SUB with other Peer Educators to teach students about a variety of health and wellness topics pertinent to student life. Feel free to drop by the Wellness Centre sometime to meet Dick in person. He'll be excited to meet you and tell you all about how you can have a wellness assessment, attend workshops or even pick-up safer sex products such as condoms, dental dams and vibrators.

Come meet Dick!
